Hi Kristen,

Our Finance department will likely also want to see a contract or agreement between your firm and our office. Do you have something you can put together for that purpose, or would you prefer that we handle that?

Thank you.

Hi Kylie:

We have no conflicts. Because some of my colleagues perform land use, solid waste regulation, and utility rate work, among other things, we need to send the attached draft letter regarding the limits of our representation. Do you or the City have any problem with or questions about the attached draft? I don't want to send a one-way letter like this without some client input first. Thanks.

Yes, I agree that Cascade Natural Gas should be a potential adverse party too.

We can also run the two names. I'm thinking we should have Cascade Natural Gas as a potential adverse party too. Do you agree?

By the way, Kris Mosebar is my legal assistant.

Hi Mark,

That's great that you are familiar with Bremerton.

Paul McConkey and Natacha Sesko are the other property owners in the area.

As I understand it, the gas plant changed hands several times but I believe Cascade Natural Gas received the same request for information.

Hi Kylie:

I would love to assist the City of Bremerton on this matter. I was (b) (6) and am familiar with the area of the former gas plant site. I will need to first run a conflicts check to make sure our firm has no conflict of interest. I plan to have the City of Bremerton a potential Client and US EPA as Adverse. Are there other parties we should run conflicts on? Thanks.

Hi Mark,

I was given your name by attorney Matt Cockrell. The City of Bremerton received a Section 104(e) CERCLA request for information from the EPA regarding a site in Bremerton. The City would like to retain you for assistance responding to the request. We do not have any attorneys on staff with experience in these matters and want to make sure we respond appropriately.

Please let me know if this is something you are interested in doing. I have attached the request for your review.

Thanks,
